WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1888.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Personal
Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly are respectfully requested to call up Telephone No. 33. Don't tell your troubles to the Editor on the street; besides, when he's at the office, it keeps him busy making fires, carrying ashes, and doing like chores, and he hasn't time to carry the papers.

Mrs. L. B. Gray is critically ill at her home in Cincinnati.

Dr. Edwin Matthews is expected home the letter part of this week from Cincinnati.

Shingles—Carload Red Cedar Clearance. First come, first served. W. H. MATTHEWS & CO.

Mr. Fred Bauer, after a few years residence on his farm in Charleston Bottom, has returned to this city to reside.

Mr. J. A. Waggett, the efficient Bookkeeper of the Keystone Commercial Company, is ill at his home in East Third street.

Mr. W. D. Burley is out again, after having been laid up in bed several days, suffering from injuries received by falling from a telephone pole.

Mr. Bost, an expert tar man, from Chicago, is here to put in the filler on Second street, taking the place of Mr. Kenney, who has returned to Chicago.

A suit has been filed in the Mason Circuit Court by the Eastern Kentucky Asylum against Henry L. Simpson and Clarence L. Sallee, his committee to recover the costs of taking care of said Simpson while in the insane asylum, he having property in Mason county.

Great interest is manifested in the bowling contest that takes place tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Bowling Alleys in West Second street between the East End Chester Blues and West End Knockers. A large crowd will no doubt be present to help the winning side.

The 100,000 saw logs that got loose in the Big Sandy yesterday are going down the river at a lively gait. They passed Vanceburg yesterday and the first one of them reached here about 8 o'clock last night. State law makes a reward of 25 cents for each log captured.

Yesterday about noon a streetcar ran into a car in front of George Pollitt's livery stable in East Third street, completely demolishing the vehicle and frightening the horse. Two Negroes were driving the horse, which belonged to Dickson & Myall. No one was injured.

See my "Watch" bargains. You have never been able to buy as good watch for the price at which I am selling them. With every dollar's worth of goods, cash, we give a ticket on the elegant Diamond Ring.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The funeral of Mr. Marshall Stacy, aged 70, of Buena Vista, O., formerly of this vicinity, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock from the Undertaking Establishment of Porter & Cummings, interment taking place in Maysville Cemetery. Rev. G. W. Bunton conducted the services at the grave.

Dr. A. G. Browning met with quite a painful accident in Third street, near the Central Presbyterian Church, Monday night at 7 o'clock. While attempting to cross some planks laid over the curbstone his foot caught in some manner and he fell to the ground, sustaining several bruises and a sprained hand. He was pretty well shaken up, but not seriously hurt.

The character which Anna Day portrays in "When Knighthood Was in Flower"—that of the medcap Mary Tudor—is absolutely historical, though a statement to the contrary has been made since the play was brought out. Nearly four centuries ago "Princess Mary" was a very real and decidedly alive young person, whose beauty and temper were common objects of adoration, as well as awe on the part of all Englishmen, of both high and low degree. To see Miss Day in the part is to witness a most beautiful and wonderfully convincing vivifying of this long dead and almost forgotten willful, but lovable girl.

EDWARD P. FORMAN.

Mr. Edward P. Forman, after an illness of nine months of heart trouble, died at his home in East Second street this morning at 8 o'clock, aged 60.

Mr. Forman was one of the best known men in this city and county, having been born and raised in the Washington neighborhood, and was very popular with all who knew him.

Besides a wife and a three-year-old daughter, he leaves one sister, Miss Sallie Forman, and numerous relatives in the county.

He was a member of Wyandotte Tribe, I.O.R.M.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

FRUIT CAKES.

We have the very choicest Raisins, Currants, Orange and Lemon Peel, Shelled Pecans and Almonds. All new goods. Bake your cakes NOW. Your cakes will be better by Christmas. You can buy cheaper now than later. Prices are advancing steadily.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

We are glad to report that Mr. Goodpaster's little boy, Albert, ill with pneumonia, is improving and has about passed danger.

Two Ministers of Churches in Winchester have been called to other fields—Elder Cecil J. Armstrong of the Christian Church having accepted a call to Troy, N. Y., and the Rev. William Cummins of the Presbyterian Church to Clarksville, Tenn.

It is one of the most wonderful tonics for developing the figure, making bright eyes, red lips and rosy cheeks, ever offered to the American girl. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets. 35 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Ray's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or money refunded. 25 cents.

Mr. James Egnew and family are preparing to move to the residence in East Third recently vacated by Mr. B. Q. Gasser and family.

It is one of the most wonderful tonics for developing the figure, making bright eyes, red lips and rosy cheeks, ever offered to the American girl. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets. 35 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. Abby Leer has bought a farm of fifty-six acres of land near Millersburg for $6,000.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. R. Ivie in Market street this afternoon.

IT TOOK TWELVE MONTHS' WORK

ACCORDING to the census sharps the wealth of the United States, if printed in $1 bills and they placed end to end, would make a string long enough to reach from the earth to the moon and back thirty times.

MAYOR EUGENE SCHMITZ of San Francisco, who must answer to five indictments for blackmailing saloon keepers, is a product of the Labor Union element peculiar to that very peculiar city. There's none like it elsewhere in the United States.

In spite of BRYAN's indorsement of the unspeakable HEARST, there are yet a few persons who think "the peerless leader"—with lower-case letters, mind you,—will be the Democratic nominee for President in 1908. Well, suppose we make it BRYAN and HEARST?

THE Board of Public Works and the Police of New Albany, Ind., have been trying to stop unnecessary blowing of locomotive whistles in that city, and investigations developed the fact that Engineers had a regular code of private signals, notifying their wives what they wanted for supper or breakfast. For instance, one short blast and one long one was an order for ham and eggs. Judging from the immense amount of whistling done by some of the C. and O. Engineers in this city, they must order up the whole darned menu, with after coffee, cigars and toothpicks on the side.

I HOPE some enthusiastic Trust Buster will cut this out, paste it in his hat, and come 'round after the Standard Oil Company is dissolved and tell me how much cheaper he is buying his coal oil. Don't forget, please.

THE Court of Appeals has just declared unconstitutional the Richardson Act adopted at the General Assembly session of 1904, imposing a tax of 50 cents per barrel and 25 cents per package on rectified liquor or spirits. It would save a good deal of worry and expense if the Court would declare the whole Legislature unconstitutional and be done with it, for about everything it did has been declared illegal when a test has been made.

THE War Department mails are heavy with letters protesting against the discharge without honor of three Companies of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, colored. Most of these originate in Massachusetts, but nearly every section of the country is represented. These men—they're not worthy to be called soldiers—were dismissed in disgrace by President ROOSEVELT because of riotous conduct in a Texas town, and evident collusion to prevent exposure of the guilty ones. The President is exactly right. He demands that everybody shall respect the uniform of Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors; therefore he requires that soldiers and sailors must themselves so act as to entitle their uniforms to respect.

"No, my child, new words are coined every day."
"And what is the last word, papa?"

Why Vinol Is Better Than Any Other Remedy to Restore

Health and Strength

Vinol

WE RETURN MONEY IF IT FAILS TO GIVE SATISFACTION

JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

Because Vinol is a real Cod Liver Preparation and does not contain a single disagreeable or harmful ingredient and is not a secret formula.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal elements—the soothing, healing, strengthening and flesh creative properties of Cod Liver Oil—but without oil or grease.

Because everything in Vinol,—except the tonic iron and a fine old wine,—is actually extracted from fresh cods' livers and their oil.

Because Vinol is deliciously palatable and agreeable under all conditions. Everybody likes it.

Because Vinol tones up the system, strengthens every organ, nerve, muscle and fibre of the whole body and thus overcomes weakness by thoroughly eradicating the cause of disease.

That's Why Vinol is altogether different and better than any other remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat, Lung and Wasting Diseases.

That's Why Vinol Restores Health and Strength to Delicate Children, Feeble Old People, Weak and Sickly Persons, Nursing Mothers, and Convalescents.

CAUSED A SENSATION

Bessie Haley, Colored, Arrested For Being Drunk and Disorderly

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock Officers Tolles and Senteney arrested the notorious Bessie Haley, colored, aged about 23 years, for being drunk and disorderly.

This is not the first time that she has been in the meshes of the law. On October 7th last, a warrant was sworn out for her arrest on the same charge, but she has kept low and in hiding, consequently our worthy officers were unable to serve the warrant.

Now, after having "been good" for a month or more she broke out again, and began to beat up her mother and curse and abuse everybody in sight, until finally the police were called in to arrest her. They found her in an outhouse in Bank street, between Third and Fourth streets, where she had hid herself when the officers came in sight.

She will have a hearing before the Hon. Judge Whitaker this afternoon, when probably the two cases will come up.

It was rumored that she had killed a man during this drunken spell, but it was without foundation.

SOCIETY

Mrs. J. C. Rains has issued invitations for a reception at her home in "Riverview" for tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The young gentlemen and lady friends of the charming and accomplished Miss Hodgins of Rome, Ga., will give an informal dance tonight at the Washington Opera house in honor of her visit to Maysville.

Invitations have been issued to about 40 couples, and the affair promises to be one of the finest of the season.

Messrs. Howard and Hubbard will furnish the music.
